The Manamater Store.

The display of imported evening dresses, tailor-made gowns, opera cloaks and wraps, and fine lingerie, continues on our Fifth floor.

New attractions are in the Picture Gallery on the Fifth floor. Elegant pottery and statuary are in the basement Bric-a-brac Art Room.

A TRIO OF NEW HATS

Here are three hats that splendidly illustrate the autumn styles, and incidentally the character of the Wanamaker millinery.

First is a black hat, large and striking, in poke shape, turned up on the side; shirred satin, with five black plumes, and ornaments of jet and brilliants; satin ribbon strings. $32.

The second is a symphony in delicate steel gray, flaring straight brim, with twisted velvet around the Tam O'Shanter crown, trimmed with six gray ostrich plumes, and gray chiffon on

The last is in the new smoke color; a handsome English walking-hat, made of shirred velvet, Tam O'Shanter shape, with flare at side; two smoke-colored plumes over the side; As smoke-colored velvet twisted around the crown, and pressed velvet at the side. $25.

MEN'S Ready-to-wear clothing comes every day nearer and nearer to suiting the tastes of exacting wearers; for it is easier to suit the cranks of fifty thousand men than the cranks of one,—and the one that cannot be suited now is getting constantly scarcer.

If you're critical, come and see what this clothing store can and will fit any figure. furnish in handsome overcoats. If you're luxurious, start with white coutil, $1.50. our imported black vicuna, at $30; lined with heavy silk and faced to the edge. You would pay your tailor $45 for bust, white or drab coutil, $3.50;

Or take Covert cloth at $20; two handsome new shades, silk lined throughout, and very finely tailored.

A very dressy silk-lined black cheviot oversack is $12; and a well-made all-wool Covert cloth, $10.

The values in the low-priced coats are really remarkable; every penny of the cost is made to count.

THE WIND-UP OF 1897 HUMBERS

In bicycles, as in everything else, there is something a grade better than the ordinary "best,"—something which was indicated by the word "supertine," before that much-abused word was done to death by overwork.

In bicycles that extra quality is the Humber.

Ask an enthusiastic cyclist about his wheel, and he will tell same place the simple, pretty, comfortyou that it is "the best wheel made,—except such wheels as the Humber, of course.'

Taking the exclusive agency for Humber wheels for 1898 means closing out all 1897 wheels that are left. To do this we make the price on

> $115 Humber Roadsters, $65 $122.50 Lady Humbers, $75

Such opportunities come only once. We have some more 1897 Falcon wheels, at $26.50 for men's: $27.50 for women's wheels.

Tally-ho tandems are here for $50. All kinds of bicycles are sold at our branch bicycle stores, Forty-second street and Fifth avenue, New York, and Bedford avenue and Fulton street, Brooklyn.

HISTORY IN PICTURES

Children will study Ridpath's great History of the World by the hour, with eager delight; for it is made charming to them by nearly four thousand illustrations. These include chronological and genealogical charts, race plates, and race charts, in colors, which make learning a pleasure; and there is an almost endless collection of engravings and reproductions of paintings by the great masters of European and American Art. It is the greatest gallery of historical pictures ever collected.
